SnoBASH

Has been confirmed. It will be April 22. It will be at the TRAIL HEAD for the Bear Valley Cross Country trails (about 3 miles north of Tamarrack Lodge) People that are helping set up and take down will be there April 21,22,23. We need people to help set up and take down the equipment. Many of the "regulars" will be unable to attend because of other commitments.

If you want to attend once we have confirmed, please RSVP to snowlets8@yahoo.com with number of dogs, what equipment you have or need. Heron has offered to be the point person for people wanting to run their dogs. (see attached rules)

You need to make your own reservations. We recommend Tamarrack Lodge which is listed below.

For those that go up and help, we usually do Pizza at the lodge (there are not many places to eat at Bear Valley). On Saturday night we do a pot luck dinner. Both of these will be at Tamarrack Lodge. If you are interested in participating in either contact Marie Stevens at sleddingshopper@pacbell.net.

Informational pages on SnoBASH, fitting harnesses, and more can be found at <http://www.bayareasiberian.org/events.html>

If you are only parking for the day they do charge a fee to stay the day. For those that want dogs in their room or can't drop off the car, there are places to stay in Arnold and Angels camp. Which are 30-45 minutes drives from where we are.

SnoBASH ~ running your dogs

Heron has offered to manage rides at SnoBASH. She can be emailed at snowlets8@yahoo.com

She will address issues during orientation. Attendance at orientation is MANDATORY.

At orientation, she will teach people how to put on harness, explain what the terminology that is used means so if someone says "unhook black dog from tug line" people will understand what the tug line is. She will also explain how things could get when the dogs start to go so if someone shouts "move!" Or "grab the dog" people will jump in and not just stand and stare (you know that look lol).

There is a process of putting dogs on and off that needs to be followed. Front dogs are first on but last off when we return.

The fee will be $20 per dog payable on the day. Cash please.

All equipment will be supplied for running the dogs, however please bring your own water, water bowls and food for the dog.

We will have collars and harnesses available.

You are responsible for all of your belongings so please keep track of it, things can get lost in snow easily.

Everybody must check in with Heron, if you are not checked in by 11:30, your dog won't be able to run.

All dogs must be in harness and on the tie out after orientation if they want to run. If you wander off with your dogs when we are putting dogs in their teams, we will not wait for you. And you'll have to wait for the next run.

Stay off the sled trails unless you are assisting.

Children are welcome to attend however please do not leave children unattended and under NO circumstances can a child approach a dog without their parent or guardian with them.

If you have a dog that do not like to be handled by strangers please tie a yellow ribbon to its collar so we'll know to call for the owner if any handling is needed.

All times are approximates and are subject to change.

Check in 10:45

Orientation starts at 11am.

Run the dogs from 12pm-4pm

There will be a group dinner at the Tamarack lodge at 6pm please RSVP if you'd like to go. Dogs are not allowed in the lodge.

3rd Annual Paw on the Avenue event in Willow Glen.

By Candice Tuttle

BASH participated in this annual event sponsored by Willow Glen on March 26th. We were given a great spot in the Paws on the Avenue “Rescue Row”. Jim Morris and Candice Tuttle manned the event with our BASH info board, literature and pictures of dogs that have been adopted and those currently available.

Jim brought two of his dogs, Niko and Shadow to help with the day. Shadow was pretty laid-back and let things flow around him while Niko, even though blind, was the hit of the day as the greater to all – man and dogs. Stacey came for a while with her three dogs to show how well trained they can be. Thanks Stacey!!!

There was a lot of interest by those wanting to learn about BASH and the adoption process. I am sure we will see a few adopt, if not now, soon. We even were given a $5 unsolicited donation!! Hmm...perhaps a donation jar should be put together.

The event went from 1:00 to 4:00 PM with perfect weather for all. The clouds started coming in as we were packing up.

Thank you Jim for helping to lug all the equipment back and forth from car to our location. So helpful!

HandsON grooming gloves

La Cava found these at PetExpo and fell in love with them. They are far better than any other glove that I have seen. They come in 2 sizes (Large and Medium). You just pat or rub your dog and the gloves pick up the fur. The dogs love to be rubbed. The hair on the glove you just peel off and throw it away. They are a great find for those of us with Siberian Huskies.

At HandsOn, they feel there is always a better way to do things. And this is the precise approach they took to designing their HandsOn grooming products. Delivering the best designs possible to the consumer, they not only sell their product, but they love it too. They are a community who puts family and animals first, which drives their commitment to creating products for people who groom, train, ride, compete, or just love being with their pets. And it's this expertise and care that's evident in the HandsOn Gloves. One of the most anticipated bathing and grooming products to ever hit the market, the unique design was carefully developed to provide a deep and thorough cleaning, as well as de-shedding as an added bonus. It also promotes bonding with the animal, as the gloves actually feel like a massage for the animal thanks to the rows of soft nodules.

Davy Crockett would love to explore the world with a special companion. Could that be you? Davy was found wandering alone on the border of San Francisco and Daly City. is shy and standoffish at first but quickly warms up to loving people. At a year old Davy need exercise. He has a beautiful gait that that will eat up the miles as he explores the or country with you. Davy is house broken and walks well on a leash. He will sit for treats. He will do best with another dog companion in the home. He loves being petted just being with a family.. Please check out the web site; Openpaw.org for advice on the first two weeks with your new dog.

Easter Dog Treats {Vegan}

Ingredients

- 2 c Flour (you could use a whole wheat or other flour, but it will alter the color slightly. Whole wheat also give them more body. I really don't think the dogs will mind 😊)
- 1/8 tsp Baking soda
- 2 mashed, very ripe Bananas
- 2 Tbl Unsweetened Applesauce
- 2 Tbl Warm water
- All natural food coloring

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.
2. Combine all ingredients except food color in the bowl of an electric mixer. Blend to form a dough that will hold together in a ball. If your dough is too moist, add more flour. Too dry? Try adding more applesauce. The dough is very forgiving.
3. Roll the dough to about 1/4". They will puff up when baked.
4. Cut into shapes using miniature Easter shaped cookie cutters. These are about 1-1/2" cutters. You can get these on Amazon.com or at most craft stores that carry baking supplies. I think even Walmart might carry them in this small size.
5. You can also get the bags there as well.
6. Arrange cookies on a parchment or Silpat lined cookie sheet.
7. Bake for 5-6 minutes until they are just set and move easily on the cookie sheet. Do not let them brown.
8. Reduce the heat of the oven and once it's at the lowest setting (175 degrees), continue to bake until completely dry. We are basically dehydrating the cooking removing all of the moisture so they are crunchy and have some shelf-stability. Any moisture that remains could cause them to mold after a few days. If you are unsure, take one of the thickest cookies and snap it in half to test. I usually turn the oven off at this point and let them cool in the dry residual oven heat overnight.
9. Allow to cool completely before giving to your pup! 😊
