Parade of Rescues at Nationals

It was a FANTASTIC experience. There were 31 dogs many from BASH and NorSled. The five minutes of Glory was neat. It was held at lunch and many people stayed around to hear the story of each dog as they walked around the ring. Every entry received a rosette with their dog's name on it, a backpack with a bottle of wine, biscuits, a gift from SOS-SRF, dog water bottle and a scarf with the dog's name embroidered on it.

Bootie Brigade

Thanks to all that participated. We completed a little more than 1100 booties over three nights of sewing and a handful of people took 100 home to sew the Velcro on. The third night of sewing was just using surgers on the edges of the ones taken home.

As always it was fun to get a group of people together and just make something for someone else.

I will probably forget someone and I apologize...

Thanks to Marie, Peggy, David, Michelle, Cheryl, Greta, Beth, Rachel, Haily, Launa, Karen, Bev.....

There will be at least two pure bred Siberian teams running the Iditarod this year

Wayne Curtis and Karen Ramstead

Both have run it successfully in past years.

Blue is a sweet dog that was surrendered with another sibe because they didn't have time to spend with them. They were mostly outdoor dogs. She is very sweet and tries very hard to please. She walks GREAT on a leash. She is good with kids. She wants her tummy rubbed and she wants to please those that show they care about her. She is NOT ok with CATS. She is house-trained, rides ok in the car. She would do best in a home with a dog that will play with her. She will also be ok with a person that works at home or can take her with them during the day. She responds to women better than men. She can not be crated.

Macio Simpson 831-663-4323 mrgizmoz@sbcglobal.net

Sasha is a very active dog that LOVES to play fetch! She needs a lot of leash training. She was injured on her neck from a rotten rope (tied and probably wet for a while) and is healing well. She is a wonderful, SWEET and playful dog. Because of the sensitivity of her neck, a family with young kids would probably not be good.

Randee McQueen (408)371-1841 BASHRR@aol.com

Roxy is a great dog that appears to be young. She loves to play with all of my dogs from 10 weeks to 12 years. She is good also with small dogs. She rides well in the car and walks ok on a leash. She loves to play with toys and cardboard. She is mostly house-trained but when one of the dogs disciplines her she will pee a little. She wants to please..if she thinks you are mad she will come to you crawling. She is a nice dog who will make a great companion to another dog. A friend took her to her house and found she ignores her cat. Later in the evening she found that the cat was asleep with her.

Eric- a 13 week old Malamute/Siberian. He will be 100#'. He is sweet and easy going.

Pattie LaCava 415-722-5727 spiritofashadow@aol.com

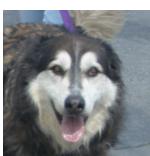

Millie found herself with Animal Control in San Francisco when she decided to take a BART ride. She took BART from Union City, where she was first spotted, to the Balboa Park station in San Francisco, where she was picked up by the city on Oct. 3. She'd been seen on BART in Daly City, too, indicating that she either rode to the end or decided to reverse direction. Millie does have the beginnings of cataracts, but other than that she shows no signs of aging, she a very active, spirited girl, who obviously knows how to entertain herself. Millie just loves all humans but would prefer not to be around other animals. You really must meet this girl to see how truly lovable she is.

Randy Fishel randyf@sibernet.com

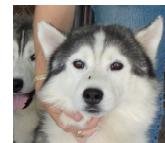

Beautiful, sweet, funny, and loving, but a little apprehensive. Just a sweet girl looking for a forever home.
