LISTS– BASH has two “lists” that we maintain for the club. The first is a general club information list and the second is on issues involving rescue. If you are a member and interested in being on either list, please send a request to Randee at BASHRR@aol.com. If you have sent a request in the past 2 months, send it again as the list changed servers and some were lost.

Fun Match– who can come and what do I enter?

Anyone is welcome to come and bring their dog. If you have an unaltered AKC registered Siberian– enter confirmation.

Most of us have altered Siberians or northern breeds... If the dog is altered and looks like a Siberian– enter them in the Spay/neuter class...and if you want the sled dog. If you have more of a malamute or other northern breed or mix...enter sled dog.

Anyone is welcome and encouraged to join the obedience class.

If you want to learn more about showing– sign up for the handling class. Kids have a great time in this one.

This is a day of fun and enjoyment with your dog or dogs. No pressure just fun and learning.

We always have a great raffle also

Call Randee if you have a question on any of it..

Umunhum Run

When: May 27th & 28th

Time: meet at 5 pm

What to bring: dogs, jackets, sleeping bag, tent.....

Please note that we must pass through 3 locked gates. You can not be late.

Groups must stay together on the way out until reaching Camden or the Expressway

This will be our first RUN of the year. We meet at the gate at 5pm. Get up to the top and set up for dinner by 7 pm. If it is cool enough we might run before dinner, but not likely. We set up tents and other areas for those staying over night. We set up lines and are ready to go when and if it is cool enough.

In the morning we rise with the sun, harness them up again and run them about 4 miles. After running we have a GREAT breakfast. We will do a little clean up prior to coming down the hill. We should be off between 12 and 2. We have a great time and we don't lose our whole weekend to camping.

Not everyone stays all night. The requirement is for those not staying that there must be at least two vehicles going down together, and they must stay together to Hwy 85.

Call for directions and where to meet.

It takes approximately 30 minutes to get to the first gate from Highway 85 and Almaden Expressway.

CALL to find out what you are to bring.

One member usually takes on the main meal and we share the rest.

RSVP by Friday May 24th
Ranee McQueen at 408-371-1841
or e-mail her at bashrr@aol.com

WE NEED AN RSVP in case of fire, extreme heat or other emergency we can contact you about changes in times or in case of cancellation.

SnooooooBASH II

By Marie Stevens

SnoBASH II is now just a memory, but it is a happy memory! There weren't dogs, but we had a fun, many of us there, just 6 people and 19 very relaxing time. We arrived around 1:30 on Friday, as usual, and went up to the cross country ski area at Bear Valley to set up the lines. It was cold, windy, and spitting some snow, but not enough to really stick to the ground. There was some snow left on the ground, but lots of uncovered areas as well. Paul, owner of the cross country store and concession, had put in a trail down the runway and circling around in a lightly wooded area. Once we got the tie outs up (this was different.....no need to climb down snow mounds to get to the dogs!), we hitched up and went for a ride. The dogs were excited and eager to get out and run. In fact, my team was SO excited that they just took off in whatever direction took their fancy. I kept having to stop and get them back on trail....the snow hook held but it was dicey because the snow wasn't very deep. The trail was about 2 miles long. We only made one loop because it was getting kind of late by the time we got everything set up. Then we went back to the lodge and had appetizers and wine/beer/Margaritas, and just shot the breeze. No big rush to do anything. Peggy Rusher cooked a wonderful stirfry dinner for us, and Vicky, Tim, and the kids joined us.

Saturday was a relaxing day also. We weren't planning on giving any rides to others, so there was no big rush to get up the hill. We had a nice leisurely breakfast and just took our time. In the cool morning the trail was pretty slippery as it froze overnight. It was quite exciting to take off with six excited dogs and a totally empty sled!! When I tried to lean in a particular direction to steer the sled, it would just slide out from under me. We finally ended up carrying each other as passengers so we had more control. Paul put in a couple of other trails early in the morning; they kind of wound around trees and open streams. It would have been so easy to miss a corner and just slide right into the water! Luckily no one did, but we had some close calls. During one of our runs, one of Marian's dogs got really tired and we decided that she should ride back in the sled. We tied her into Marian's sled, but she (the dog, not Marian) jumped out as soon as the sled started to move. I was riding in Randee's sled, so we decided to take her with us so I could hold her. But once we managed to shove her into the sled, there was no room for me to sit down. So I ended up lying on my back on the front of the sled, with my head toward the dogs, holding Icee on my stomach and legs. This actually wasn't too uncomfortable, but watching the expression on Randee's face (which was all I could see.....I couldn't see where we were going) was quite scary! Her eyes would get big every now and then and I would know something bad was coming up. And then there were those occasions where she would get a diabolical grin. That REALLY made me nervous. But we stayed out of tree wells and made it over the bridges without mishap (except for some bruises when Randee hit the driving bow while trying to keep the sled on the trail). And my neck got tired from holding my head up, as I was longer than the sled. (I must be really smart to have such a heavy head.)

Mid-afternoon a snow storm started, and it just kept coming down so we went back to the lodge.

Another relaxing afternoon and evening, with drinks and appetizers, and movies on the TV. We had take-and-bake pizza that night, also quite good. We had a short meeting as well, then watched a marathon of movies, several about dogs and dogsledding. It snowed all night long; the next morning there was about 1 1/2 feet of new snow and it was still snowing. We decided to go pack up the lines but not go for another run, and then leave early. We got on the road around lunch time so we got home late afternoon. The dogs were tired enough that they slept the whole way home. All in all, a very relaxing, fun weekend!

Maureen Marcus 510-895-9104, spiritofashadow@aol.com

Hollee is about 3 years old and is named after Jennifer Holiday because she loves to sing. Hollee is a very sweet, calm girl that just loves attention ! She knows sit, lay down and walks well on leash. Hollee is about 85 lbs and craves human companionship, she's so gentle she'd be good for a first time owner.

Nova went to the vet recently--(mild skin irritation) but the vet does not agree with her stated age of 11 he is more in the agreement with her foster mom that she is about 6-7 years old. She is still active and shows no physical signs of a senior. Nova is playful, happy and loves running around the yard. She loves children and people in general. She's very loving and well behaved. In her foster home she can come and go inside and outside at will when her foster is at work without trying to escape and then sleep by her bed at night. Nova knows sit, stay, lay down, and come. As you can see by the one picture she loves to ride in cars but she does not get along with other dogs and no cats.

Misty is a one year old female who could be a malamute siberian mix. The picture makes her look larger than she actually is. Currently she weighs about 50lbs. Misty needs some work on her leash skills, but she knows how to sit, shake, and she's working on perfecting her downs. She is house broken and prefers to be in the house. Misty gets along with other dogs, she's timid at first but then becomes playful.

Smokey is an 8 yr old mix who's owner decided he didn't have time for him anymore. He has been an outdoor dog but I'm sure wouldn't mind coming in the house once in a while. He's a big boy that needs to loose some weight but he's a big teddy bear. We're working on getting some mats out of his coat but he has been real patient while we tugging on him. He gets along with children and we haven't seen any problems with him and other dogs. He knows sit, lay down and walks okay on leash.

Tricia Ellston 831-663-4323 shotwithlove@hotmail.com

Glacier and her daughter are both good indoors, need leash training, not cat friendly, don't like being alone (ar at least separte from the other) Tommy Girl is very outgoing, happy, lovable and friendly. Glacier is shy and lovable. They are great together! if apart they will need a bit of work/patience. If you need more call. They both know sit,shake and give kisses.

Randy Fishel randyf@sibernet.com

Celine is a very sweet woolly coated husky that has been neglected recently. But she so much wants to be loved. She is good with other dogs, and kids, and may even be good with cats (though we havn't tested her with cats). She is bi-eyed, but her blue eye has juvenile cataracts, and is a bit swollen. Though blind in that eye, it doesn't bother her, and she looks at you with loving eyes. Do you think you have the home that she can call her's?
