Blowing Coat???

Have others noticed that our dogs are all blowing their summer coat already. Many are getting very thin winter coats also. Many of us feel that this is an indicator of an early and cold winter.

The Farmer's almanac says - The weather predictions in the 2012 edition of the almanac include -- gasp! -- a stab at actual science. It says a fading La Nina, or area of abnormally cold water, in the Pacific Ocean will drive a colder-than-normal winter for much of the central part of the country, while the east will stay warm.

Twice a year the new guard coat coming in and pushes the undercoat out resulting in profuse shedding or "blowing coat". The shedding process usually takes from three to six weeks, with a new coat growing in during the next four to six weeks. During the active shedding period, groom your dog daily.

The furminator can be used to remove big clumps of loose hair. Then start at the head brushing against the lay of the coat, lay your hand below the coat rake and pull a little hair at a time up from under your hand and continue working toward the back of the dog. While brushing, spray a fine mist of your water/conditioner mix to help loosen tangles and prevent breakage. Horse Mane and Tail detangler works great on dogs as well!

A warm bath once a week can really help loosen the hair and shorten the length of time they blow their coats.

Umunhum October 1,2

In previous years I was able to set a schedule for the summer. This year we have been unable to run as much because they have been demolishing buildings on the old base. It has been too dangerous to be there so we have waited to set the runs. This is TENTATIVE...can change from weather, Fire or schedules that cause us to change the date.

We have a MULE now for carting and bathroom runs. This will be the first camping trip of the summer. We have to pull out all the stuff we put away for the winter (BBQ, tables, etc)

We meet around 5 pm on Saturday night and if the weather allows, we run the dogs between 7 and 9 pm. If it is warm we eat dinner first and then run them. They run from 1 mile to 7 miles, again it is based on the weather... Dinner is a group effort.

Some people then camp in tents but most campout in their cars or beside them.

In the morning we rise with the sun and run the dogs again. We try different dogs in different positions and come back to a GREAT group breakfast and off the hill by 11 am.... You still have time to do things before the end of the weekend.

Most people go up for the whole event. SOMETIMES (not all the time) we have a couple that only come up for the evening part. This can only happen if we have at least two cars going down at the same time.

Time to meet- 5 pm at the lowest gate (there are three locked gates so we have to stay together)

RSVP Randee at (408) 371-1841 or bash@com-ctl.com by the WEDNESDAY before the weekend to find out what to bring and for how many.

What you need to bring- your own drinks, sleeping bag, food for your dog and food for dinner and or breakfast

Miss A 831-970-2360 brndy2133@yahoo.com

Chinook is a striking 2 year old male siberian husky. He is about 55 pounds so he is also average size for a siberian. He is very affectionate and loves human contact. He gets along with large as well as medium dogs, but not cats or small dogs. Chinook loves swimming in a pool, playing with toys and going for walks on the beach plus digging holes in the sand. He is very gentle and loves to chew on nylon bones along with playing tug a war with ropes. He knows how to sit, gives his paw and lay down. Chinook loves going for rides, and chases birds in our yard. He needs a family with husky experience or one that wants to work with an intelligent siberian.

Bandit is a smart high energy boy that loves to talk. He loves to go for walks, on a morning run or just likes to snuggle. He interacts well with large to medium dogs, he is still a puppy that chews, rips papers and puts everything in his mouth. Bandit also digs and hides his toys in the yard. He walks well on lead and does not pull. Bandit is a great dog that just wants a great family.
