2025 Christmas Party

A great time was had by all that came to the party. We had our meeting (minutes following) and passed our new ByLaws. After that we had a fantastic dinner with Ham, Turkey and much more. We had a great raffle that brought in about $220 and included many Siberian items.... After that we did the gift exchange and stealing

Kibble Gourmet Treat

Ingredients:

- 1 cup Gourmet Pet Chef Kibble (ground into crumbs)
- 1/2 cup unsweetened applesauce
- 1/4 cup peanut butter (unsweetened, no xylitol)
- 1 egg
- 1/4 cup oat flour or whole wheat flour

Instructions:

1. Preheat your oven to 350°F (175°C).
2. In a large mixing bowl, combine the ground kibble crumbs, applesauce, and peanut butter. Mix well.
3. Add the egg and oat flour to form a dough-like consistency. If the dough is too sticky, add a bit more flour.
4. Roll out the dough on a floured surface and use festive cookie cutters (stars, hearts, or “2024” shapes) to cut out treats.
5. Place the treats on a parchment-lined baking sheet.
6. Bake for 15-20 minutes, or until firm and golden brown.
7. Let the treats cool completely before serving.

Optional: For a special New Year’s twist, sprinkle a small amount of finely chopped Chef-Prepared Chicken & Rice with Veggies into the dough for added flavor and nutrients.

Lucy (AKA Sundae) is sweet and does well with other dogs her size. Haven't been able to test her with small dogs yet. She is alert and active and could probably do flyball. She loves to be with people and cuddle and stays close. She is learning to ask to go outside to go potty. She is from San Francisco and seems to be trained to go on potty pads. She can be shy and takes a few minutes to warm up to people. Walks well on a leash. She is sweet and friendly and would love to be in a family that wants a dog to cuddle and play with.

Ranger is approx 2 to 3 years old and should weigh around 60ish lbs once he fills out. He's on the skinny side at the moment and needs to gain a few...currently weighs about 53 lbs. He has the most beautiful ice blue eyes.

He was pulled from a very over crowded shelter in Modesto by the good folks at Hair of the Dog Rescue with only a couple hours to spare before being euthanized. In a shelter packed with dogs, it's not always easy to stand out from the crowd and get adopted but he was shelter staff favorite and is a certified good boy.

We rescued a husky off the streets about a year ago. She is named Calypso which means one who hides. Multiple vets think she was on the streets for several months, she was emaciated and afraid of being inside, of all men, most women, and all loud noise or sudden movements. She had to be pulled out of a heap of garbage on some lady's side yard. We posted her on forums and checked at several vets, clinics, and shelters for a chip and lost notices and after about a month we registered her while we fostered her.

Calypso is spayed and now a healthy weight. She is now on Trazodone for anxiety. We have put her through group classes and private classes where she graduated from basic obedience training. She will follow basic commands such as sit, down, come, leave it, wait. She loves to play with the other dogs that we have in the house and loves to be outdoors, camping, and go on car rides. She walks well on a leash with minor corrections.

She is exceptionally quiet for a husky and will only have the occasional vocalization. She hasn't been introduced to other animals or children yet. She tends to hide in dark small spaces until she is comfortable in a new environment and likes to find shelter in a crate. She is a very loving dog once she gets comfortable with you and loves to cuddle with big sloppy kisses.
